

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF MONTANA
GREAT FALLS DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

ZACKARIA JULY CRAWFORD,

Defendant.

CR 13-111-GF-BMM

ORDER

This case was referred to United States Magistrate Judge John Johnston for a revocation hearing and findings and recommendations. Judge Johnston entered his findings and recommendations on February 8, 2017. Defendant admitted that he had violated the conditions of his supervised release by failing to attend substance abuse testing, by providing a diluted urine sample, and by failing to notify his probation officer of a change in his employment. Judge Johnston found the admissions sufficient to establish the supervised release violations. Judge Johnston recommended that this Court revoke Defendant's supervised release and commit him to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons for a term of imprisonment of three months, with 33 months of supervised release to follow. Judge Johnston also recommended that Defendant's supervised release conditions include a mental health evaluation.

No objections were filed by either party. Judge Johnston's findings and recommendations are therefore reviewed for clear error. McDonnell Douglas Corp. Commodore Bus. Mach, Inc., 656 F.2d 1309, 1319 (9th Cir. 1981).

This Court agrees with Judge Johnston's findings. Defendant admitted that he had violated the conditions of his supervised release. Defendant could be incarcerated for up to 24 months, followed by 36 months of supervised release less any custody time imposed. The United States Sentencing Guidelines call for a term of imprisonment of three to nine months. A sentence of three months in custody, followed by 33 months of supervised release is appropriate. The sentence is sufficient but not greater than necessary.

IT IS ORDERED that Judge Johnston's Findings and Recommendations (Doc. 54) are ADOPTED in full and Judgment shall be entered accordingly.

DATED this 27th day of February, 2017.

Brian Morris
United States District Court Judge
